

The New Common Rule: Ethics, Data Protections and Community Research Considerations

Sponsored by Arizona Biomedical Research Commission

High Country Conference Center
FEBRUARY 15, 2019, 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM

AGENDA

- 10:00 – 10:15 Welcome, and Overview – Bob Trotter, Regents' Professor, Northern Arizona University
Introductions – Julie Baldwin, Director for the Center for Health Equity Research,
Northern Arizona University
- 10:15 – 11:15 Keynote Address: Paul Gelsinger
Jesse's Intent: A very personal look at a gene therapy clinical trial and the ethics of medicial research
- 11:15 – 11:30 Break
- 11:30 – 12:00 Presentation 1: Priscilla Sanderson, Associate Professor, Health Sciences
Collaborative Tribal Research Partnerships
- 12:00 – 1:00 LUNCH
- 1:00 – 1:30 Presentation 2: Vern Pilling, Director, CB2 Biomedical Informatics Services, University of Arizona
Data Security and Protection
- 1:30 – 2:00 Presentation 3: Mary Hanabury, Director of HRPP, NAU
Changes to the Common Rule
- 2:00 – 2:30 Presentation 4: David Faguy, Assistant Vice President for Research Compliance, NAU
Clinical Trials
- 2:30 – 2:45 Break
- 2:45 – 3:45 Community Panel Discussion
Timothy Flood, Chair, HSR, Arizona Department of Health Services
Paula McAllister, IRB Administrator, Northern Arizona Healthcare;
Kalvin White, Member, Navajo Nation Human Research Review Board
Mary Hanabury, Director, Human Research Protection Program, NAU, Facilitator
- 3:45 – 4:00 Wrap-up: Mary Hanabury, Director, Human Research Protection Program, NAU